A Pentecostal ecclesiology is a way of arranging our meetings and churches in anticipation of the Spirit's continued presence and guidance among us. This was the experience of the early Church according to the book of Acts, when the divine promise was recalled: "I will pour out my Spirit on all people.

is essentially the working-out of the ramifications of that key event. The book takes a more ontological understanding of the relationship between the Spirit and the church than would Protestant and evangelical ecclesiologies. In this respect, it has more in common with Orthodoxy. It is further argued that this realignment away from Protestantism and evangelicalism ...
